

BENEATH THE HOODIE

A Look at Racial Profiling in America

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. CELEBRATION

THURS, JAN 16, 2014

A Conversation with Sybrina Fulton

12:00 pm

Union Ballroom, U of U

Sybrina Fulton, the mother of Trayvon Martin, will lead a conversation about her son's case.

FRI, JAN 17, 2014

"Only Light" Reception

6:00 pm

Rio Gallery

The "Only Light" Exhibit runs from January 17th - February 14th, 2014.

Sponsored by the Utah Office of Multicultural Affairs.

SAT, JAN 18, 2014

Day of Service

8:30 am - 12:00 pm

Union Food Court, U of U

To find out about volunteer sites and pre-register visit bennioncenter.org.

MON, JAN 20, 2014

March for Youth

2:00 pm - Rally

2:30 pm - March

East High School

A march to support our students and the Pastor France A. Davis Scholarship.

TUES, JAN 21, 2014

Campus & Community Panel

12:00 pm

Hinckley Institute of Politics, U of U

"Positive Youth Development: Community Resistance to Institutionalized Racial Profiling"

WED, JAN 22, 2014

Joaquín Zihuatanejo

12:00 pm

Union Ballroom, U of U

Joaquín Zihuatanejo is a poet, spoken word artist, and award-winning teacher.

Film/ Panel Discussion

5:00 pm

Social Behavioral Science

Lecture Hall Auditorium, U of U

A screening of C.O.P. Crimes of Police, a documentary about police brutality in America. The film director/producer Ansar El Muhammad "Zar The Dip" will be a panelist.

THURS, JAN 23, 2014

Keynote - Marc Lamont Hill

12:00 pm

Kingsbury Hall, U of U

Dr. Marc Lamont Hill is one of the leading hip-hop generation intellectuals in the country. His work covers topics such as culture, politics, education, and the war on youth.

For more information, visit

diversity.utah.edu