"The Wannsee Conference"

REMEMBRANCE STARS AND POSTERS

Available from the Office for Student Equity and Diversity, 110 Park Building, 201 South Presidents Circle (801-581-5193)

On campus yellow cloth stars will be distributed to students, faculty and staff and will also be available to community members to commemorate the identity badges that have been imposed on Jews throughout history. In Nazi-occupied Denmark, the underground produced replicas of the Nazi-imposed badge, which read "Jews and non-Jews stand united in their struggle."

CANDLELIGHT VIGIL

A simple moment of solemn reflection with candles will be held Thursday April 12th at 6:30 pm (outside the Carolyn Tanner Irish Humanities Building just prior to the keynote address). Guest speaker: Ambassador John Price.

All 2011 Days of Remembrance events (except the workshop taken for credit) are free and open to the public. For more information, call 801-581-5193 or visit <http://www.diversity.utah.edu>

Please join the Utah community on this important day:

YOM HASHOAH—HOLOCAUST COMMEMORATION DAY

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 2012
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

I. J. AND JEANNÉ WAGNER JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER
2 NORTH MEDICAL DRIVE, SALT LAKE CITY, UT 84113

Free and open to the public.
Free valet parking will be available.

As a community we will be remembering the victims and heroes of the Holocaust through music and poem readings by the winners of the 2nd Holocaust Literary Contest, and lighting memorial candles. We will have a proclamation by Utah Governor, Gary R. Herbert, recognizing Utah's "Days of Remembrance Week." The theme for this year is CHOOSING TO ACT: STORIES OF RESCUE and the program will include a special guest speaker, Ambassador John Price, whose family escaped Germany, after experiencing the horrors of Kristallnacht, with the help of Herr Tautschold, a non-Jew who managed to get the Price family passports and visas for Panama.
